NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEFENDANT OF EXEMPTIONS AND RIGHT TO A PROMPT HEARING

It may be that the plaintiff has or will have notice to your bank or other persons holding property or assets for you of the intent to put a hold on certain accounts held by you, either individually or jointly with another person, including, but not limited to bank, share, and credit union accounts. Under Indiana law, this notice may already have resulted in the placing a hold on those accounts.

Under federal and state law, certain funds are exempt from garnishment. This means that these funds may not be taken by creditors even if they have been deposited into your accounts. Social security, supplemental security income, veterans benefits, certain disability pension benefits, and benefits under any pension paid from a trust qualified under that employee retirement income security act of 1974 cannot be taken. There may be other exemptions under state or federal law. If you or another person who maintains a joint account with you believe that all or some of the funds in these accounts are exempt, you or your joint depositor are entitled to a prompt hearing in this court to present evidence to establish exemptions and to seek removal of the hold.

To obtain such a hearing, fill in the form marked @Exemption Claim and Request for Hearing@ below and return it to this Court either by mail or by personally bringing it to the Court. A copy of that form should also be sent to plaintiff's attorney or to the plaintiff, if the plaintiff is not represented by an attorney. A prompt hearing will be scheduled by the Court as soon as possible, but generally no later than five (5) days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays) after the completed form is received by the Court. Please call the Court at 776-9612 to find out when the hearing is scheduled. When calling the Court, please have the cause number handy. The cause number is located on the first page of this document at the top of the right-hand side. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether all or part of the funds in each account on which a hold has been placed or other accounts in which you have an interest may be taken by the plaintiff. If a joint depositor or you do not request an early hearing, there will be a hearing at the time when you are ordered to appear. At that hearing, you and a joint depositor are entitled to assert any exemptions. However, if a joint depositor or you do not request an early hearing, each account on which a hold has been placed may not be released until the time you are ordered to appear.
